

Upcoming GSSCC Owners & Entrepreneurs Circle Meetings and Events

Thursday, August 4, 2022

- 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Mi Rancho Restaurant
- Topic: When to automate, delegate, or eliminate
 - As business owners, we always have more on our plates than we have time to tackle. We can delegate, set up automatic systems, or simply stop doing things that don't benefit our business. But it's not always easy to know which approach to take in a specific situation. Join to share your experiences on what's worked for you and why and get a new perspective how to free up your time.

Thursday, September 1, 2022:

- 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. | Matchbox Silver Spring
- Topic: Getting out of your own way: open/honest discussion about our blind spots
 - Sometimes, the thing that's holding us back the most is ourselves. Whether it's our inner critic, ego, or blind spots, we can get in our own way. Join to have an open and honest discussion about how to get out of our own way so we and our businesses can thrive.

Thursday, September 15, 2022:

- 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. | TBD
- Topic: Social Lunch
 - If you've been curious about the OEC, or if you're new to the Chamber, this is a great opportunity to come and meet some fellow business owners from the Silver Spring area in a relaxed atmosphere.

Thursday, October 6, 2022:

- 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. | TBD
- Topic: Turning ideas into reality - how to fix the problem of never implementing; or do a working session to implement something
 - Are you the sort of person that's never short of new ideas? Do you find yourself excited about working on new projects and initiatives only to leave a trail of uncompleted projects behind you? Join to discuss how we can embrace a culture of continuous improvement while ensuring that our business stays focused and actually gets stuff done.

Thursday, November 3, 2022:

- 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. | TBD
- Topic: Managing your passion: balancing profit and passion in your work
 - Many business owners choose to start a business because they're passionate about the work they do and want to turn that passion into a successful business. But sometimes the things you're passionate about conflict with what makes the business profitable. Join to discuss how to manage these potentially opposing forces to achieve a balance that works for both you and your business.

Thursday, December 1, 2022:

- 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. | TBD
- Topic: Open Circle
 - Bring a topic that you'd like to get your peers' input on, whether it's a problem you're facing, a decision you're considering, or just an area where you'd like some fresh ideas.
